

I am not a constitutional expert; yet, I don't think that the great American forefathers thought limiting the rights of the citizenry to information from a venue of their own choice because of the political influence of a corporate power would be an exception to their mindset of their ultimate creation, the Constitution of the United States of America.

We must be careful that we do not become that from which we FOUGHT for freedom from.